

PIERRE’S USER JOURNEY

PERSONA	SCENARIO	GOALS
• Name: Pierre • Age: 32 • Interests: Running, health, and fitness.	Pierre is getting ready to participate in the London Marathon. He has a history of participating in other races but he is now challenging himself with this big marathon event.	• To participate in the London Marathon • To implement better training methods • To improve physical and mental fitness.

Phase 1: Preparation 1. Set Goals • Action: Writes down goals for marathon. • Emotion: Excitement. 2. Create a training plan • Action: Conducts research and selects a good training plan. • Emotion: Determined. 3. Run with friends • Action: Hook up with friends for a run. • Emotion: Encouraged.	Phase 2: During the race 4. Arrive at the race • Action: arrives at the race venue and does warm up. • Emotion: Anticipation. 5. Managing hydration • Action: Grabs water at hydration stations • Emotion: Tired 6. Physical discomfort • Action: Body pain. • Emotion: Disappointment.	Phase 3: After the race 7. Completing the race • Action: Crosses the finish line. • Emotion: Elated 8. Reflection • Action: Sits down to reflect. • Emotion: Grateful. 9. Future plans: • Action: Sign up for another marathon. • Emotion: Motivated.
---	--	--

OPPORTUNITIES	OPPORTUNITIES	OPPORTUNITIES
1. Consider joining a local running group for motivation. 2. Put some days for rest and recovery. 3. Schedule weekly group runs.	4. Engage with fellow runners. 5. Carry a water bottle for consistent hydration. 6. Adjust training to include more runs.	7. Celebrate with friends and family. 8. Document the experience to track progress. 9. Use insights from the race to refine training methods.