Question: What challenges do you face when coordinating plans with a group?

Answer: the hardest part is getting everyone to agree on dates. Some friends have different schedules and it can be really frustrating.

Question: How do you typically communicate with friends about holiday plans?

Answer: We mainly use WhatsApp. It's convenient because everyone has it

Question: What financial stressors do you encounter during group trips?

Answer: There's always this awkward moment when we talk about splitting costs. I often feel anxious about asking for money upfront.

Question: Can you describe your typical process for planning a holiday with friends?

Answer: We usually brainstorm over drinks. It's casual, but sometimes we end up going in circles.

Question: What tools do you use to keep everyone informed?

Answer: We use Google Docs for the itinerary, but not everyone checks it regularly.

Question: How do you handle financial discussions?

Answer: I find that really tricky. Some friends have tighter budgets, so it can be awkward to bring it up
